

Defense Ammunition Center

*Minority College Relations Workshop, 2002
OSC Rock Island IL.*

The DAC Mission

- ★ Logistics Engineering
- ★ Explosives Safety
- ★ Training
- ★ Technical Assistance
- ★ Technology
- ★ Career Management

DAC at McAlester

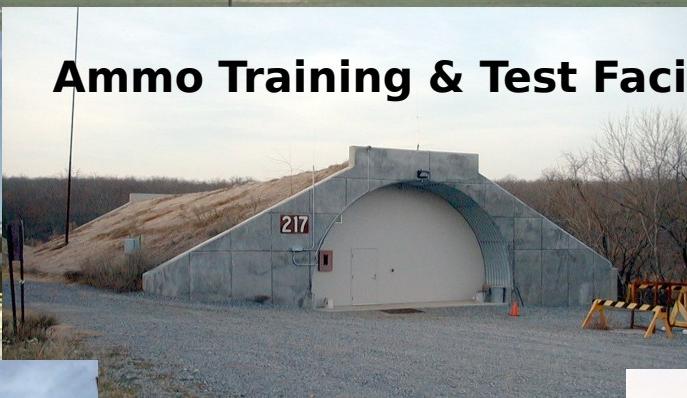

Headquarters

Training Offices

Ammo Training & Test Facility

Classroom Facility

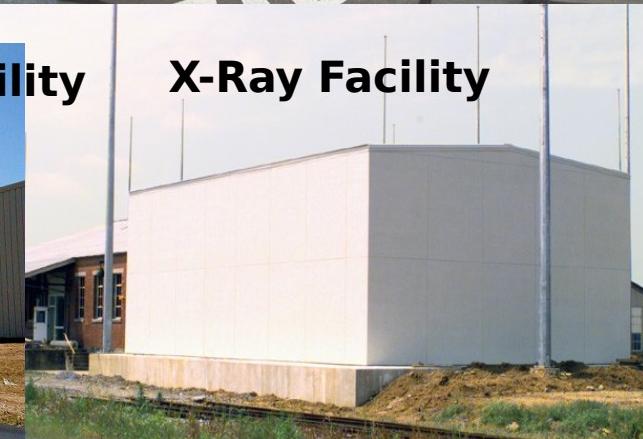

Applied Instruction

Transportability Test Facility

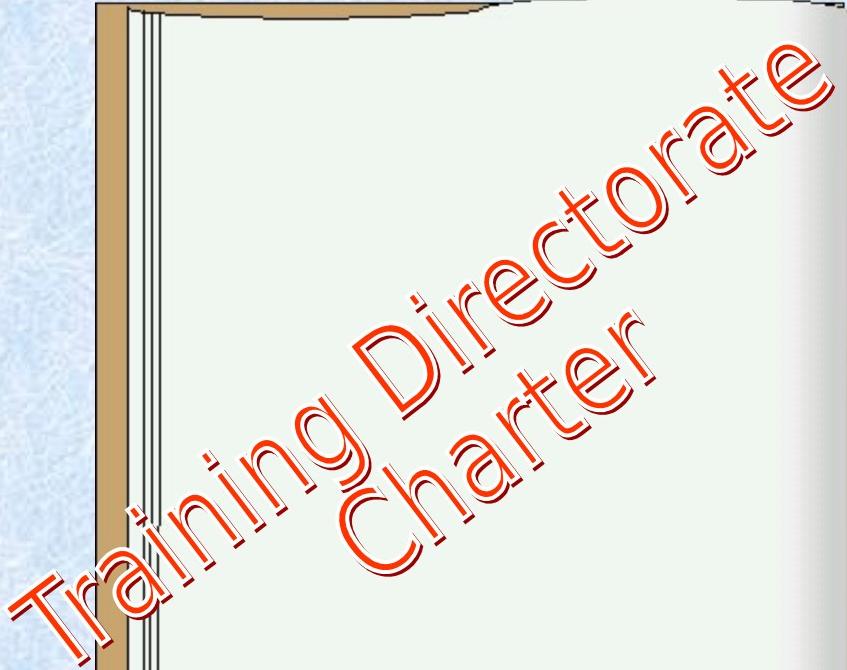

X-Ray Facility

Defense Ammunition Center

Directorate for Training

Department of Defense INSTRUCTION

Number 5160.68
March 3, 1995

E2.14.1.2 Operate a defense ammunition center and school to provide Education and training for ammunition managers, specialists, and operating Personnel required to perform conventional ammunition logistics missions, and to support related civilian ammunition career programs, in accordance with requirements of the SMCA and of the Military Services.

Modes of Instruction

- Resident: McAlester, OK Campus
- Off-Site: Worldwide MTTs
- Accredited Off-Campus Instruction (AOCI)
- Computer Based Training
- Collaborative Agreements

Computer Based Training (CBT)

Fourteen Courses Currently Available:

- Introduction to Ammunition
- U.S. Army Explosives Safety
- Military Munitions Rule 2 (MR2)
- HAZMAT Familiarization HM126
- New Hazard Class/Division 1.2 Standards
- Pest Free Ammunition Shipments
- Class V Issue, Turn-In and Residue Processing Procedures
- Radioactive Material Handling Safety
- Radioactive Material Handling Safety - MC Tester
- Radioactive Material Handling Safety - M Abrams
- Naval Explosives Safety Managers/Supervisors Orientation
- Shipboard Explosives Safety

DAC Collaboration with Academia

- Recruiting under the Outstanding Scholar Program to fill DA Intern Program positions (CP-20 & CP 33)
- Photo-catalytic conversion (Demil Technology) with Oklahoma State University
- Student Employment Program - 12 students currently employed by DAC
- Supported five students from Langston University and one student from Bowie State University in projects involving engineering, library science, and training.
- Hosted 3 Oklahoma college students in

DAC Collaboration with Academia (Con't)

- American Council on Education (ACE) college credit recommendation for DAC Courses, continues
- Eastern OK State College presenting DAC Technical Transportation of Hazardous Materials Training
- Explosives Safety for DOD Contractors presented in conjunction with University of Texas, Austin
- Providing Instructor Certification Program for DAC Instructors through University of Oklahoma and University of Texas, Austin

2002 Academic Intern Projects

- Process, store and retrieve digital information
- Analyze software for on-line multimedia products and use
- Digitize and web-enable historical diaries
- Inventory library collection - compare hard copy to on-line catalog
- Analyze server hierarchical structure
- Complete final presentation on Power Point to include lessons learned and present to DAC personnel

Directorate for Training Summary

“Developing Training for the 21st Century”